Two Sent To Hospital Because Of Car Crash

On November 10, 2012 at 7:07 p.m. Beaverton Police Officers were dispatched to the intersection of SW Scholls Ferry Rd. and SW Horizon on an injury crash. The crash involved two vehicles, a Jeep Cherokee and a Mustang.

Once officers arrived they began the investigation while members of Tualatin Valley Fire and Rescue (TVFR) worked to free the two occupants in the Mustang. Once these two occupants were removed from the Mustang they were transported to a local Hospital for treatment of serious but not life threatening injuries.

The roadway is being cleared and should be re-opened soon.

It is unknown at this time if speed or alcohol was a factor in this crash.
